

Dear Parents / Carers

It's with real sadness that I write to you to inform you that Syd Lewis, who was Headteacher of the Junior School from 1979 until 1993, when he retired, has recently passed away.

I was lucky enough to have met Syd on a number of times and he occasionally emailed to offer me wise words and encouragement. He came to visit the school on a few occasions, most recently at the 50th anniversary celebrations, when he was in good spirits and the staff were thrilled to meet him.

Mr Lewis may well have been Headteacher when parents or grandparents of our children attended the school and I'm sure you would join the Parkwood school team in wishing his family well at this time and taking the time to think about the contribution he made to the school for so many years.

Mr Moir
Headteacher
